“Community, Open Access, Needs Led, Nothing About us Without us, Engagement, Collaboration, Timely Help and Support”

What did we want to achieve?

- A joined up service
- Meets the needs of all
- Dynamic, flexible, responsive, easy to access
- For all needs
- Early intervention, promoting independence, within the community
- Evaluated by service users and carers

True co-production

Service users are citizens

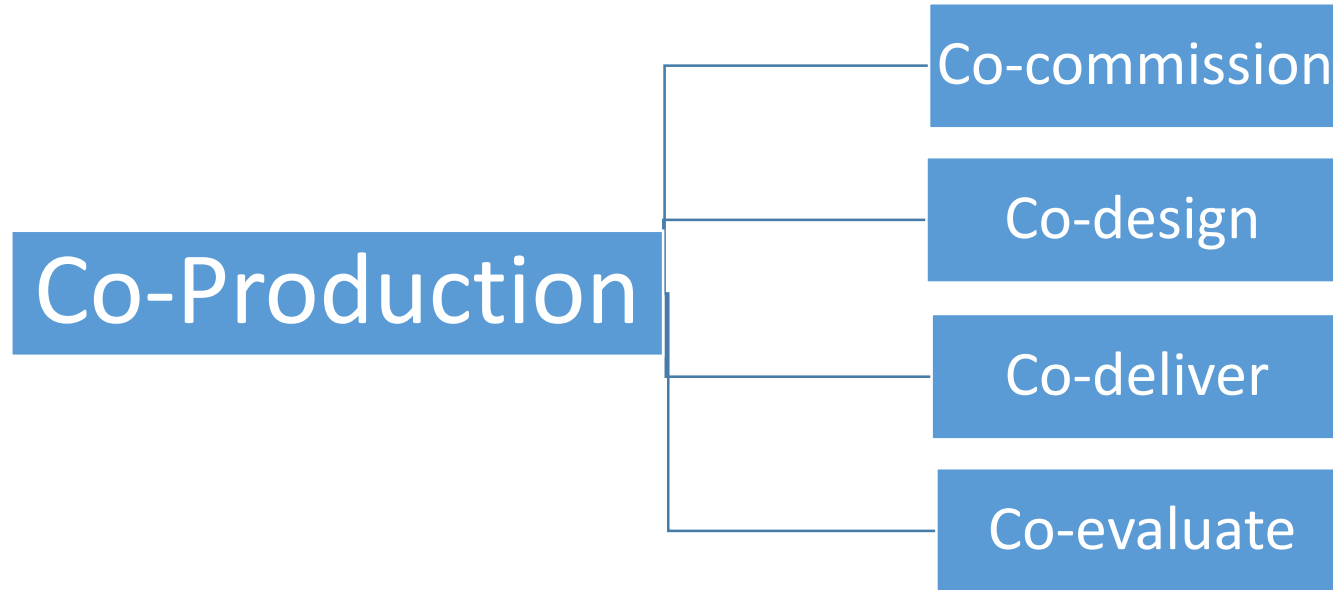

Citizens and professionals work together to

- Define their needs
- Design the answers
- Deliver the service
- Evaluate the success

Working together every step of the way

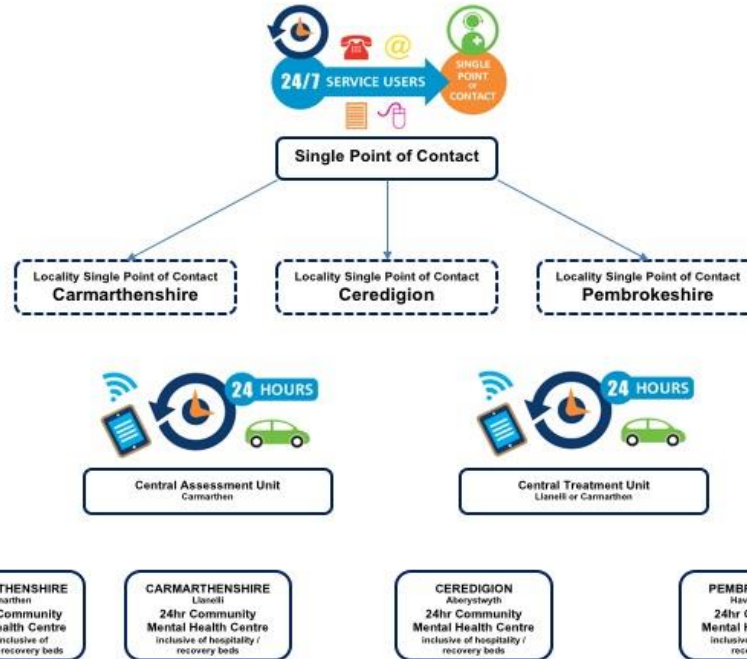

Co-producing services, co-creating health

Impact

- Improved relationships with service users and their supporters
- Genuine empowerment to influence decisions
- Focus on whole life, recovery, social inclusion, freedom and choice
- Developing a consensus model of future care together

A co-designed future model of care

COMMUNITY SERVICES

Linked to Mental Health Centres, support and advice provided throughout Carmarthenshire, Ceredigion and Pembrokeshire.

Future success

- Continued co-production into delivery of care and support
- This is the start of the journey
- Pause, reflect, listen, feed back
- The value of continued communication with frontline staff, service users, carers and stakeholders
- Genuine collaboration
- An organisation that listens more than it speaks

Key learning 1

- Multi-agency programme group was essential
- Having the right people in the room allows for the right conversations
- People come together despite differing viewpoints and experiences
- All members have an equal voice

Key learning 2

- Getting key messages across
- Use of language
- Clearly articulating the vision
- Dispense with jargon
- Engage, listen, reflect
